

Dear Guests,

At the Sawmill Inn, we continually strive to serve consistently good, high quality food. We do this by purchasing our food products according to an established set of standards and specifications. All of our beef products are graded USDA choice or better, and come from the Midwest's best packing houses. Our seafood is the highest quality available, whether it is the Canadian walleye, cold water lobster or any of our other seafood selections. Even our produce is delivered daily in order to ensure freshness. We think you'll agree that our extra effort is worth it.
